

Women Celebrating Life*

Assistance Application

The Support group of Women Celebrating Life provides assistance grants to women who are facing the challenge of breast cancer. The funding is based on financial need and can be used for breast prosthetics, medication, wigs and other assistance based on personal need.

Women Celebrating Life is a non-profit organization and is not funded through state or federal agencies, nor is it affiliated with the federally supported National Cancer Institute, American Cancer Society, or any similar research group. All funds are raised locally and are used to serve the women of the Downriver area. Grants are evaluated on an individual basis.
